

The Mancini Center is Proud to Announce

“ASK THE DOCTOR”

A New Column written by:

Dr. Giordano-Perez, MD

Dr. Giordano-Perez, MD is a Medical Director for Tri-County Community Action Agency Health Center. He earned his Doctorate in Medicine from the Warren Alpert School of Medicine at Brown University, and completed his Family Medicine Residency at the Oregon Health and Science University. Dr. Giordano-Perez enjoys caring for patients of all ages, and brings with him a wealth of knowledge and experience in adult primary care and preventative medicine. He brings to his career in medicine a genuine compassion and dedication to his patients. Dr. Giordano-Perez is currently recognized as one of the Providence Business News' Top 40 Under Forty Award winners!

One of the fundamentals of good health is good information. The Mancini Center has partnered with Tri-County Health Center to offer you a NEW Question & Answer column written by Medical Director, Dr. Giordano-Perez, MD. He will address your medical questions and write his analysis in your bi-monthly newsletter. Questions related to Cognitive Decline, Balance Issues, Oral Health, Osteoarthritis or Osteoporosis, Vaccines, Nutrition, and Health Screenings are suggested. All questions will be reviewed and answered accordingly. You are not required to disclose your name. All personal information will be kept confidential.

To submit your medical question, email npmcprograms@northprovidenceri.gov or stop by our front desk and leave your question with our Receptionist. Dr. Perez will answer up to 3 questions per newsletter.

Tri-County Health Centers, located at 1126 Hartford Ave., Johnston, and 33 Maple Ave., North Providence, are Federally Qualified Health Centers that offer primary medical, behavioral health and dental health services to individuals and families. All insurance plans are accepted, and sliding fee scale is available for those that qualify.

For more information call (401) 519-1940 or visit tricountyri.org.